Dear Cathryn,

Welcome to the third edition of In Focus.

We would like to wish you and your family a happy and prosperous New Year from all the team at Focus.

We start this issue with an interview with the great punters pal 'Miracle' Malcolm Johnston and look out in the coming days for your chance to win a signed framed photograph of Malcolm aboard the great 'Kingston Town'. Also in this edition of In Focus we profile NSW Director David Chatillon, launch a new and exciting product "Evolve" 100% Recycled and have a look at Focus NSW new warehouse... and much more!

New premises for Focus

From humble beginnings in July 2005, Focus Paper are pleased to announce they have moved into the 21st century with a new, modern warehouse facility.

Conveniently located adjacent to their old premises in Mandoon Road Girraween, the modern larger premises will allow Focus room for expansion to carry a broader range of products to offer the market.

"The new warehouse gives us scope for future growth and allows us to explore new product segments", reports director Luke Wilkinson.

"Moving to the adjacent building was ideal as there was no disruption to our customers, suppliers and staff".

Focus Paper are excited about the year ahead and look forward to working closely with their clients to meet and exceed their expectations. All contact details for Focus remain the same.

As previewed in the last issue of In Focus we are proud to have the 'Miracle' himself Malcolm Johnston speak with In Focus. He shares some great moments with us from his illustrious riding career and life after riding and Kingston Town.

We would like to give a special thanks to Malcolm as he has donated a framed photograph of himself aboard the great 'Kingston Town' which he will personally sign to the winner of an up and coming competition we will be running! Click here to read the full interview.

Cathryn thanks for your support of Focus Paper and we trust you enjoy In Focus – Issue 1.2.
